1. Introduction

We are

The European Cybersecurity Industrial, Technology and Research Competence Centre (hereafter “ECCC”) was established by Regulation (EU) 2021/ 887<sup>1</sup> . In accordance with the article 3 of that Regulation, the mission of the Centre, and the related Network of National Coordination Centres, is to:

- Strengthen leadership and strategic autonomy of the European Union (“EU” or “the Union”) in the area of cybersecurity by retaining and developing the EU’s research, academic, societal, technological and industrial cybersecurity capacities and capabilities necessary to enhance trust and security in the Digital Single Market, including by retaining and developing the confidentiality, integrity and accessibility of data.
- Support EU technological capacities, capabilities and skills in relation to the resilience and reliability of the infrastructure of network and information systems, including critical infrastructure and commonly used hardware and software in the Union.
- Increase the global competitiveness of the Union's cybersecurity industry, ensure high cybersecurity standards throughout the Union and turn cybersecurity into a competitive advantage for other Union industries.
- Undertake these tasks in collaboration with the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) and the Cybersecurity Competence Community, as appropriate.
- In accordance with the legislative acts establishing the relevant programmes, in particular Horizon Europe and the Digital Europe Programme, use relevant Union financial resources in such a way as to contribute to the mission mentioned above.

This mission is translated into objectives and tasks of the ECCC, which are specified respectively in articles 4 and 5 of the referred Regulation.

The ECCC will be made up of 37 staff initially and will manage a budget of about EUR 200 million per year.<sup>2</sup>

The ECCC will be located in Bucharest, English will be the language commonly used to exercise its tasks.

of the ECCC. She/he will also be responsible for monitoring of the key performance indicators (KPIs) and associated targets in her/his projects portfolio, while maximizing the impact of the ECCC overall program implementation through dissemination of project results and achievements, including feedback to policy. She/he will contribute to the coordination activities of the ECCC by facilitating working and advisory group activities and supporting the operation of and the interactions between the bodies of the ECCC, i.e. the Governing Board and the Network of National Coordination Centres. Moreover, the Programme Officer will ensure timely and adequate communication of results of projects and contribute to the ECCC Communication Plan and Strategy including the organization of events.

Duties and responsibilities

More specifically, as a member of the ECCC, under the supervision of the Executive Director:

- Manage some or all of the aspects of programme development and programme management. This includes:
  - contribute to work programme development;
  - feedback to policy in particular regarding technological trends and emerging cybersecurity challenges;
  - contribute to evaluation of the impact of the programme and to monitoring of the actual effect of its activities on the market;
  - organise trainings, meetings, seminars or talks including Info Days;
  - contribute to communication and information activities;
  - contribute to realising synergies across all parts of the Horizon Europe and Digital Europe programmes as well as with other relevant EU programmes.
- Manage some or all of the phases of programme implementation and stages in the lifetime of projects in the frame of the Horizon Europe and Digital Europe Programmes. This includes:
  - prepare, launch and follow up the calls for proposals defined in the work programme;
  - receive proposals and perform admissibility and eligibility checks;
  - organise the evaluation of the proposals, including the selection of the expert evaluators and observers;
  - prepare the award/rejection decisions;
  - prepare grant agreements and grant decisions on the basis of the standard models drawn up by the Commission and/or the ECCC;
  - ensure appropriate procedures in place for participants to make enquiries or complaints about their involvement in the programmes and that information on how to register concerns, questions or complaints is made available to all participants and published on-line;
  - monitor the implementation of the grant agreements and grant decisions by the beneficiaries, making the necessary checks, including acceptance of reports and other deliverables;

- manage grant agreement amendments, payments and recovery procedures with the exception of enforceable decision on recovery;
- ensure appropriate information (policy feedback) to the Commission on relevant projects' achievements and outcomes;
- cooperate with the Commission in the performance of its ex-post audits and take any corrective actions following up the audit findings;
- perform routine ex-post publicity and dissemination of results in accordance with the strategy for dissemination;
- ensure the application of early detection, exclusion and financial penalties within the meaning of Articles 135-144 of the Financial Regulation.
- Where relevant, perform all the operations required to launch contests and award prizes in accordance with the Financial Regulation.
- Where relevant, conclude public procurement procedures and manage the ensuing contracts, including the operations required to launch and conclude public procurement procedures.
- Contribute to the strategic tasks of the ECCC. This includes:
  - contribute to the preparation, development and implementation of the strategic Agenda and the policy processes led by the ECCC through contribution and coordination of policy papers, briefings, reports and events;
  - contribute to the ECCC's relations with stakeholders, in particular relations with the Network of National Coordination Centres, the European Commission, other EU institutions, bodies and agencies, with and stakeholders in the Cybersecurity Competence Community;
  - contribute to the ECCC's communication and dissemination efforts with a view to increasing the impact, understanding and awareness of the activities, results and achievements of the ECCC and the Network of National Coordination Centres.
- Contribute to the achievement of the ECCC's objectives through inputs to horizontal coordination activities, teamwork, proactive internal communication and inputs to the work of colleagues.
- Contribute to other relevant tasks related to the setting up of the ECCC in Bucharest.

Some travel to Brussels and other locations in the EU may be required.

4. Independence and declaration of interest

The successful candidate will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests which might be considered prejudicial to her/his independence. Candidates must confirm their willingness to do so in their application.

5. Selection and appointment procedure

Selection and assessment of the application

For each selection process, a Selection Committee is nominated by the Executive Director of the ECCC.

After applications are screened, the Selection Committee, having regard to the vacancy notice and basing itself on elements of the application, will draw up a list of suitable candidates to be invited for an interview and a written test, which will both be held in Brussels, or remotely. The candidates not invited to the interview and the written test will be informed that they were not selected.

The interview and written test will assess the candidate's suitability with regard to the selection criteria mentioned above.

The Selection Committee may also decide to include additional tests.

Reserve list

On the basis of the above procedure, the Selection Committee will establish a reserve list .

Invitation to the interviews with the Executive Director

The applicants on the reserve list may be invited to an interview with the Executive Director.

Appointment

The recruitment will take place upon a decision of the authority authorised to conclude contracts of employment of the ECCC.

The Executive Director will select successful candidates from the reserve list and offer them a post. A binding commitment can only be made after the verification of all conditions<sup>6</sup> and will take the form of a contract signed by the Executive Director.

The reserve list could be used to fill other positions within the ECCC for the same profile. The reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2023 and may be extended at the discretion of the Appointing Authority. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment. Recruitment will be based on availability of posts and budget.

The ECCC may decide at any time of the procedure not to pursue the recruitment.

6. Equal opportunities

<sup>6</sup> Before the appointment, a successful candidate shall undergo a medical examination by the medical services of the Commission in order that the ECCC may be satisfied that she/he fulfils the requirement of article 28(e) of the Staff Regulation of the Officials of the European Union.

The ECCC, as a Union body, applies a policy of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in accordance with Article 1d of the Staff Regulations<sup>7</sup>.

7. Conditions of employment

The successful candidate will be appointed by the Appointing Authority of the ECCC as temporary agent pursuant to Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, for an initial period of 3 years, which may be renewed once for a fixed period. Any further renewal shall be for an indefinite period.

For External applicants, the grade offered is Temporary Agent grade AD7. A probation period of 9 months will apply for external applicants.

For Interagency applicants, the grade offered is Temporary Agent grade AD5-AD7.

To be eligible for interagency mobility, you must satisfy all of the following requirements on the closing date for submission of applications and on the day of filling the vacant post:

- be employed in one of the EU agencies in function group and grade AD5-7;
- have at least two years completed service within your current agency;
- have successfully completed the probationary period provided for in Art. 14 of the CEOS in the relevant function group.

In case of interagency mobility, the contract will be concluded without interruption of the contract concluded with the agency of origin ('the preceding contract') and will fulfil the following requirements, in particular:

- the same grade and the same seniority in the grade as the preceding contract;
- the same step and the same seniority in the step as the preceding contract.

As a general rule, in case of interagency mobility the end dates of the contract concluded in accordance with the above and of the preceding contract shall be the same. If the contract with the agency of origin was for an indefinite period, the candidate will also be engaged by the new agency for an indefinite period.

In addition to their basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances in particular an expatriation or foreign residence allowance, family allowances including household allowance, dependent child allowance, pre-school allowance and an education allowance.

For any further information on contractual and working conditions, please refer to the Staff Regulations of Officials and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) of the European Union, which is available on the following web page:

For each position, any new application made by a candidate with the same e-mail address will automatically erase and replace the previous application for that position.

Closing date Applications must be completed and submitted by 15 September 2022, 23:45 CEST (Central European Summer Time / Brussels time).

9. Applicants' privacy policy in the context of selection and recruitment

The personal information that ECCC requests from applicants will be processed in line with Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC.

For more explanations on data protection, please see the annexed privacy statement.

10. Appeals

Candidates who consider that their interests have been prejudiced by any decision related to the selection procedure can take the following actions:

Request for review of the decision taken by the Selection Committee

A candidate who feels that she/he has been treated incorrectly may ask to have her/his application reconsidered by sending, within 10 calendar days of the date of notification, a request for review via e-mail to: CNECT-ECCC-VACANCIES@ec.europa.eu. The candidate should quote the number of the selection procedure concerned and address the request to the Chairman of the Selection Committee.

The Selection Committee will reconsider the application and notify the candidate of its decision within 45 calendar days of receipt of the request.

Appeals

If a candidate considers that she/he has been adversely affected by a decision of the Selection Committee, she/he can lodge a complaint under article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations within the time limits provided for at the following address:

Miguel Gonzalez-Sancho

Interim Executive Director, European Cybersecurity Competence Centre

Head of Unit, Cybersecurity Technology and Capacity Building

Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology

Rue de la Loi 200

1049 Brussels, Belgium

The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the ECCC informs the candidate by e-mail<sup>9</sup>.

Complaint to the European Ombudsman

It is also possible to lodge a complaint with the European Ombudsman pursuant to Article 228(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and in accordance with the statute of the Ombudsman and the implementing provisions adopted by the Ombudsman.

Complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspense effect on the period laid down in the Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. Note also, that under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

ANNEX I – PROTECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

WHICH OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA DO WE PROCESS?

1.1. When you apply for a job (selection process), we process:

- Identity information you provide us with, such as your first name, last name, birthdate, preferences and interests;
- Contact details you provide us with, such as your e-mail address, postal address, country and (mobile) telephone number;
- Resume information you provide us with, such as your employer, professional experience, education, skills and references;
- Results of the selection process
- Any other personal data you provide us with to support your job application or to allow the verification of the eligibility and selection criteria laid down in the vacancy notice.

1.2. For the recruitment process, we process:

- All the information from the selection process mentioned above;
- Documents verifying nationality;
- Family situation;
- Documents verifying appropriate character references (in accordance with Article 12(2) and 82(3) of CEOS);
- Document sent from the Commission Medical Service indicating that the selected candidate is physically fit or not to perform the job;
- PMO forms to allow the establishment of the recruited staff's entitlements under the Staff Regulation and CEOS;
- Originals of the extracts of criminal record/attestation of good behavior;
- Any other personal data you provide us with.

1.3. We receive most of your personal data directly from you, but it may happen that our HR department includes additional information in your job application or that we receive information from a recruitment agency. In such case, the agency is responsible to provide you with the information in this Applicants' Privacy Policy. Also, we advise you to consult the privacy policy of the recruitment agency.

1.4. We do not intend to process sensitive personal data about you, such as information revealing your racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious and philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of unique identification, data concerning health, sex life or sexual orientation. If such information is necessary for your job application, we will ask for your consent separately. If you nevertheless provide us with such information on your own initiative, we will derive your explicit, freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous consent to the processing of this data. Personal data concerning health (medical data) are processed by the Medical Service of the European Commission. Candidates failing to provide compulsory data as requested in the vacancy notice will be excluded from the selection process.

FOR WHAT PURPOSES DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA AND WHAT IS THE LEGAL BASIS FOR THIS?

- 1.5. We process your personal data for selection and recruitment purposes so that you are able to apply for a job with us at this moment or in the near future, as well as to keep track of your details in this context and to follow up on your application. We rely on your consent for this processing activity. We also rely on Article 2(a) and (f), 3(a), 12, 82 and 86 of CEOS. If special categories of personal data are processed, we may rely on the derogation explicit consent (Art. 10(2)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725) or Article 137(3) of the Financial Regulation (for criminal records).

TO WHOM DO WE SEND YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

- 1.6. We may share your personal data with third parties in order to process your personal data for the purposes outlined above. Third parties are only allowed to process your personal data on our behalf and upon our explicit written instruction. We also warrant that all those third parties are selected with due care and are committed to observing the safety and integrity of your personal data.
- 1.7. We may be legally obliged to share your personal data with competent law enforcement agents or representatives, judicial authorities, governmental agencies or bodies.
- 1.8. We do not send your personal data in an identifiable manner to any other third party than the ones mentioned without your explicit consent to do so. However, we may send anonymised data to other organisations that may use those data for improving our job application process.

WHERE DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

- 1.9. We process your personal data within the European Economic Area (EEA).

WHAT QUALITY ASSURANCES DO WE COMPLY WITH?

- 1.10. We do our utmost best to process only those personal data which are necessary to achieve the purposes above.
- 1.11. Your personal data are only processed for as long as needed to achieve the purposes listed above or up until such time where you withdraw your consent for processing them. If you are recruited, your personal data are kept for 10 years after termination of employment. If you are not recruited, your personal data are kept for 5 years after expiry of the reserve list. If you are not on a reserve list, your personal data are kept for 5 years after the notification of non-selection.
- 1.12. We will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to keep your personal data safe from unauthorised access or theft as well as accidental loss tampering or destruction. Access by our personnel or third parties' personnel will only be on a need- to-know basis and be subject to confidentiality obligations. You understand, however, that safety and security are best efforts obligations which can never be guaranteed.

1.13. In compliance with Article 46 of Regulation (EU) 2021/887 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of 20 May 2021, establishing the European Cybersecurity Industrial, Technology and Research Competence Centre and the Network of National Coordination Centres and until the ECCC is fully established and the transition period is over, the ECCC will use the data protection record adopted by the European Commission. During this period, the ECCC will also use the services of the Data Protection Officer of the European Commission.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

- 1.14. You have the right to request access to all personal data processed by us pertaining to you.
- 1.15. You have the right to rectification, i.e. to ask that any personal data pertaining to you that are inaccurate, are corrected.
- 1.16. You have the right to withdraw your earlier given consent for processing of your personal data.
- 1.17. You have the right to erasure, i.e. to request that personal data pertaining to you be deleted if these data are no longer required in the light of the purposes outlined in Article 3 above or if you withdraw your consent for processing them.
- 1.18. You have the right to restriction instead of deletion, i.e. to request that we limit the processing of your personal data.
- 1.19. You have the right to object to the processing of personal data if the processing by us is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, unless if we demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- 1.20. You have the right to data portability, i.e. to receive from us in a structured, commonly-used and machine-readable format all personal data you have provided to us if the processing is based on your consent or a contract with you and the processing is carried out by automated means.
- 1.21. If you wish to submit a request to exercise one or more of the rights listed above, you can contact us by sending an e-mail to CNECT-ECCC-VACANCIES@ec.europa.eu. An e-mail requesting to exercise a right will not be construed as consent with the processing of your personal data beyond what is required for handling your request. Such request should meet the following conditions:
  - State clearly which right you wish to exercise; and
  - Your request should be accompanied by a digitally scanned copy of your valid identity card proving your identity.

We will promptly inform you of having received your request. If the request meets the conditions above and proves valid, we will honour it as soon as reasonably possible and at the latest thirty (30) days after having received your request.

If you have any complaints regarding the processing of your personal data by us, you may always contact us by sending an e-mail to CNECT-ECCC-VACANCIES@ec.europa.eu. If you remain unsatisfied with our response, you are free to file a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor (<https://edps.europa.eu>).
